WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 11.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

(Including Postage)

Entered at the Post Office at New York as second-class matter.

WORLD UPTOWN OFFICES - 1267 BROADWAY.

PRILADELPHIA, PA. - LEDGER BUILDING, 113 SOUTE GTH ST. WASHINGTON-61014TH ST.

VENTILATION NOT EXPENSIVE.

THE EVENING WORLD printed on Monday

Louis Tunnel is ventilated. To-day who have been told by the experts of the tunnel ventilation by artificial means is an that it cost to erect the St. Louis Tunnel Central was on the stand at the Coroner inquest he was asked if stopping the trains at Most Haven would not relieve the tun-$11,965,699, 80 per cent. of which is $3,595,-

707. If the use of the Fourth Avenue Railroad Company there is no good reason money should not be expended in making

The experience of THE EVENING WORL reporter in the tunnel yesterday showed that there is as much peril there as before the likewise that nothing has been done to les forgy day is absolutely appalling. Does the New York Central management consider th consequences that such an accident would

SENATORS SIT ALL MIGHT.

Emulating the example set not so lon ago by the upper branch of the legislative body at Washington, the Senate at this and other styles of "making a pight of it" lies in the reported fact that sitively alcepy at 12.15. So sleepy were they, indeed, that the silent midnight pricking of conscience to bear on them.

at least so far as the record goes. The cause of the all-night session and the weariness was the continued deadlock over coator Fasserr's fight for recognition

Get they ever so sleepy in the Capitol one day be forced to an awakening which will dispell every semblance of pleasant

MORE DIGHTY AND LESS TALK.

Police Justice Hogan and Assistan ciety had a lively tilt with each other in the Tombs Police Court yesterday, to the delight

Justice HOGAN differed from Mr. STOCE ing about a case which the latter brought to his notice. Remarks of a personal character and unpleasant recriminations were indulged in for some time by both gentle men, until the Justice shouted for an office:

This may have been relieving to the gen tiemen's feelings. But it was decidedly served more dignity had he been less loqua cious. It is not in order for a judge t bandy hot words with a complainant. He should be able to speak with an official force which does not need bolstering up by

REAL DISTRESS.

The Irish Local Government Board reports a failure of the potato crop in Ire-land. The misery and distress can hardly to this loss of the potatoes, and it means that the poor people will have to go without land could not be better applied than by huying food for the sufferers. Their need pressing and hungry men, women and sidren have a strong claim on any heart en to charitable impulse. Money spent Some spirit has kindly supplied in voyage in a small boat of his own invention some months ago and has not been board of till this spook despatch.

on of the death of Capt. NORTON, Cant. Norrow attempted a transationtic with him quite a respectable furture se where the boat is that the man may be seved. That this knowing spirit was not second long ago with points on the Norton seems to argue a good deal of hard-hearted-ton, since it know all about it.

In return for much that is English, we have sent across the waters—or so they chain over there—something beretofore secret.

wife and niece, and says one is still surviving on the boat, for this purpose is well expended.

imated. Half the country is subject

Money contributed to Ire sly, and the Justice would have pre-to go for Mr. GERRY.

ndent STOCKING of GREAT'S BO has indulged in an all-night

A striking difference between ors were tired at 10 o'clock and were unable to bring any

The chance for a disaster on any the tunnel safe.

bring to it ?

yearly running expense is $8,800.

N OFFICE-32 COCESPUB ST., TRAVALtion of the method by which the under the Mersey River is kept York Central Railroad Company that sublity. It is also interesting to know how the tunnel which smoke and steam. This is een 31st and 33d sts., New York ROOKLYN - 359 FULTON St. HARLEM -Sews Department, 150 East 1257H Sr.; Ad-vertisements at 237 East 1157H Sr. choicely American in the form of a blis-usly disturbed by anything which he could nies. He and his British lion may now shake themselves in vain for some days be fore they'll finally lose their coat of alleged Boston does not offer drinkers much enouragement, as they must stand while they drink. But for those who have drunk till they are incbriated she has a soft heart.

law is proposed by which the casual drunk may go free, if he asks to do so, when he is not a bad idea. It will only affect those

The Post-Office improvements will help the public and employees alike. The present rangements are very inconvenient, and the remodelling of the delivery and mail department will facilitate work as well as It is reported that Eva Mann is to try rest. She should be equally generous to

It is a novel experience for Acting Supi BYRNES to be hunting down his own blue-coats. If the stories of the police salary raising lobby fund are true, the hunt should

THE CLEANER.

D. Lindsay has turned author, and that a really his pen. His treatise is entitled "Rendition o

It treats of the subject of requisition and ex tion, and is a most exhaustive exposition of the subject, as it must be, coming from a

Judging from the published accounts of the St. John's Cathedral trustees a spirit of frate nal cordiality between the disappointed con hand, there seem to be indications and evidences of considerable coolness of feeling be ecclesiastically considered, such a condition of

I saw Mrs. William A. Clark, wife of the

She is a charmingly pretty woman, with large wore a necklace that the women must have en-ried—a simple row of alternate diamonds an rubles, exactly matched. Mrs. Dixon, a Montana friend of Mrs. Clark, and a very pretty Walle William Chase's pictures were falling ander the hammer of the auctioneer at Ortgies's galtery Carmencita's feet were twinkting in his roomy studio to the delight of those who were lucky enough to be invited to see her. Chase evidently enjoys the Spanish grace of

I wonder if Mrs. Willie Vanderbilt was moved by a womanly sympathy for the fair

Ives sale, the dainty tittle simanac which once delightful addition to Mrs. Willie's library, in The impression that goats chiefly abound i he extreme northern section of the metro; is fallactous. Ten years ago residents of civil setion in the upper districts of the city migi have been right in attributing to that part of the town a remarkable adaptability for the species. It is no longer true, however, that these animals outnumber the human inhab tants of Yorkville, Bloomingdale and Barlen two to one, and the term, "goat district, will in all probability become obsolete in a fer

I hear that the Schumann Male Quartet, which has become one of the established mu-has been engaged as a special adjunct to the Summer School at Chautaugua for the coming ceson. Casulanquans are to be congrate lated upon this prospective addition to their Isn't it funny that while the Legislature of Minnesota is considering the passage of a bill to prevent the wearing of tights in public by femal's the courts of New York have mulcted

L liian Russell in damages for refusing to wear

SPOTLETS.

We must have "the German" at our World'

A women is always giving a "straight tip" to be Nosh could "water his stock" and not care if an Oh, gas may accape and gas may burst.

And vanish in noise and flame;
But the moter's hand, in its quiet way, Goest traveling onward, day by day.
And gets there just the same.

—Teofeni T

Is would be a little hard if the only Alliance tell for another month or two to earn another hun-dred thousand dollars. But all the meney goes for Way don't Florida people show a nice same of re-procity by soming North during the Summer for WORLDLINGS.

Secretary Foster is a youthful looking official,

His form is lithe and agile, his hair dark and his ing his four years in Washington he haver allowed nis expenses to exceed $50 a month. He takes hom salary.

The grave of Limsoln's mother is on a hill near the village of Limsoln, Spencer County, Ind. It is merked by a plain marble slab about four feet high.

a song where Patti is concerned.

ark light was thrown on the onemess.

spt to feel the smart.

years, unless it is kept alive by local jealou as a word of represent and editum.

woman, was also in the box.

the dark-eyed beauty.

troversy between Architect Potter and the l learn that Assistant District-Attorney John the public and the executors.

who rarely get full.

making it easier.

be a thorough one.

ventilating plant just $7,000, and that its traduion in the early days of Western civiliz.

nel. To this he replied: "Yes, and it petitor and the Bishop to not examined to any

According to Poor's Manual, the admitted tween the two brothers. Whatever may be the authority on railroad matters, the revenue secular aspect of the case, seriously and of the New York Central last year was affairs cannot be otherwise than palaful to Tunnel is worth $3,595,707 annually to this should-be Senator from Moutana, in a box at Railwood Company there is no good reason the Metropolitan Opera-House the other night.

why a comparatively small amount of brown eyes and the awestest of smiles. She outlding's heavy chamber, the men who sical organizations of the city, recognized f blindly follow Fassery in this struggle will the excellent and artistic quality of its work, relieve the New York Cen- marked and striking degree. On the other

When the President of the New York scholarly a lawyer as Mr. Lindsay.

Not since the Declaration ndependence has John Bull been so seri Delight the Gentler Sex.

Chiffon Frills Are Very Popular-

Woollen Night-Dresses for

March - Some of the Latest Things in Spring Hats.

Slippers and Oxford ties are very often worn by children, but prudence auggests the high-

It is reported that Eva Mann is to try of proportion to their size. Let the sace at bathos if Fleury continued the scene with again for a portion of Ray Hamilton's every part of the foot equally, for if it does the face souvenir. See hummed and she estate. At present she is giving herself a not a badly formed foot, with accompanying na'd, and she tried to catch blacks. It was

The beautiful Mme. de Barrios, whose mag ificent ball electrified New York recently, i

The managers of the Margaret Etter Creche.

t Chicago, are raising a fund for the purchase ble charity gives daily care to the little one whose mothers must go from home to earn a ving. During the past year it has cared for March is a good month for woollen night gowns. The woman who gives the girls in an ptown seminary lessons in physical culture old the class the other morning to sleep in wool all Spring and have a window open in an adjoining room, provided there was no screen er room open. When an intere onvenient to admit the sleeper having one in regal pupil raised her hand and said that she didn't have any woolien nightgown and her alowance had been overdrawn, the sage instructress answered: "Why not utilize your Water jugs of repouse silver, costing $90 each, are considered nice for the hall or reception-room table. And still there are peo ple in this big, thirsty city who will get their bometimes the frills of mousseline-chiffon are hemmed, but more often they are merely made of a wide strip, folded double. They are s great feature in feminine attire nowadays, and sleeves, but also skirts, and may be purhased ready-made by the yard in most pale tints as well as white. A very simple way of sew it round the neck and down the front in a ouble row with a band of ribbon veives beween, finished off at each extremity by a bow

White broche is now in demand for neglige

Nearly $3000 has been raised by Mrs. Vir. ginia T. Smith, of Hartford, toward the sum seeded to establish a free home in Connecticut or the poor children ;in that State who are Spring is coming, for the millinery shops are siled and packed with straw, chip and field owers. Lace straw, platted straw, chip and nillinery; at the large houses. These fancy raids commend themselves by their lightness or Spring and Summer wear, and there are also less;tragile-looking braids, such as the English spilt straw and the rich yellow Tuscans. Combinations of chip and Neopolitan braid are in many hals, while others have insertions of open ntire crown of the open straw with close copular low bonnets is assured. Many of the Spring shapes are similar to those now worn, with a low crown resting flat on the head, while others are all in one piece, shelving folds; that expand; on an inside trimming of ownward from the higher back in orinkled benille or flowers, or a banueau of ribbon or jet. Another shape, rather like a mob-cap, has a gathered crown of lace, straw-edged, made up of flowers and guit braid. The rose is queen of all, and sprays of mignonette are mixed in with the natural foliage. Flowers are mounted in long-atenimed clusters, to stand high at the back of the hats, in the pretty fashion of the feathers they replace. Parma violets of the palest tint are admirably imitated in velvet, and will be worn again on early Spring hats in amali wreaths as well as in bunches. English clossoms are thickly massed. The foliage is primroses, Scotch heather and many small with a rume of the same falling on atraw so the crown. Another season of the patterned lace straw on the chip brim, or as Neapolitan braids make up the bulk of ande of a number of loose loops.

sufferers from incurable diseases.

ranging the frilling on a high bodice is to d are much used, not only to trim the bodice good for $6,000,000 worth of credit.

more than 6,000 children.

health without this luxury.

corns and bunion, will inevitably result.

Fads, Fashions and Fancies That A Parallel to the Willard Poudre-Shoes for Children - Mousseline Minnie Palmer's Designs on Comic buttoned shoe, which supports the hardt as the heroine.

unsupported. The unformed foot should giance at M. Fleury, and she saw never be too tightly compressed; a snoe that had left a big white patch on his coat. He, ankle of the growing shild, which is apt to be the play, and the white and consumptive ittely to happen when the girl or toy's foot is evening-dressed bosom. Sarah happened to is too small does not eventually make the foot poor man, was ho; cleasy unconscious of the any smaller, and it is a well-known fact that Marguerite had whitely branded him.

the extremities of young people seem all out Sarah grew distressed. It would be utter de-Riz Tragedy.

Opera - A "Love and War" Point.

E. S. Willard's action in dusting away the traces of Marie Burroughs's pretty face from makes it worth while chronishng a similar poudre-de-riz tragedy that occurred at the Garden Theatre Saturday, with Saran Bern-no use. Fleury wouldn't see her. Then she went to the back of the stage and took up a hand mirror, attracting Fleury's attention by a bit of business that wasn't in the play. He (to use a horrid expression), caught she, departing, left behind her face-prints on the front of his coat. Flenry went at once to the side and dusted himself conscientiously.

Mr. Willard, however, on Monday night didn't seem to know what he was doing. It was in-

Miss Minnie Palmer, it is said, has by no means given up her designs on comic opera,

According to the latest, she is to appear it

London under the management of Charles

"The Henrietta," Bronson Howard's suc

March 25, with clever Fanny Brough in the leading feminine part. The other roles will be played by Florence West, Marion Lea, Lewis

Waller, Earle Douglas, Charles Pulton, J. L. Shine, Yorke Stevens, Donald Robertson

The same scenery is used for the four acts beatre, and but one stage hand is employed is duties being simply to manipulate the foo ishts and curtain. It is good occasionally in and a play that doesn't depend on "accessories" and "mechanical effects."

Leonard Boyne, the English actor, who was to come to America to appear in "The Eng-lish Rose" isn't coming. This is positive— with a thousang excuses for making so melan-choly an announcement.

It is said that Mrs. Berian-Gibbs is the finan-cial backer of the play "Love and War," now running at the Garden. Mrs. Gibbs engaged James Wallis and Mr. Wallis engaged the com-pany, and there you are.

Col. Milliken is plioting Frank Oakes Rose through New England, and he opened yester-day in New Haven. Mr. Rose gives his lius-trated lecture entitled "Through London with Dickens." Master Albert Burgemeister and

'All the Comforts of Home" at Herrmann's Henry Lee and W. H. Vernon. voluntary, and the audience enjoyed it.

One moment later and he was aware that ostration. Entering a druggist's, she told him w weak, nervous, tired and minerable she felt "By all means use. Dr. Greene's Nervura," was a reply. "It is the greatest of all strengthen ng edicines for both nerves and body. It is the bes pring medicine—the best spring tonic and restora strength to the nerves, invigorates and enriches the blood, but regulates the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels."

And then he told her of a great many cases it had that it has given me Again in Health, a new lease of life and health and that I am cured of all my troubles. MRS. E. S. BO-GART, Esptist Home, 63th st. N. Y."

ing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 West 14th st., New York, can be consulted free, personally or by letter. Call or write him about your case, or send for symptom blank to fill out and a letter fully explaining your disease, will

"LOVE AND WAR."

laddon Chambers, now running at the Garder Theatre. In the first act Jeanne's beart " doe she is suffering from paralysis, although outwardly she looks well, and he agony could never be divined by her looks. In the next act, Jeanne's heart is dead though how, when and when it died, she does not say. Nobody is invited to the funeral. The most remarkable thing about this whole case powerer, is that after the death of her heart she announces that it breaking. How it could break after death, plaight. Perhaps Paul Charton did in the

The play itself-I have finished with Jeanne's sure sign of mental infamy. The two boys go to the war. Jacques is very jealous of the le a mystery, Haddon Chambers doesn't ex not respond," and see leads us to suppose that

Br. Greene, the successful spe cured, that it was purely and cost out $1.00.

never regretted it for it made her, and will make you, strong, vigorous and "I suffered with malaria, hidney and liver complaints, servous prostratio oughed to my bed. I need Dr. Greene's Nervura. and feel and sleeplessness.

he returned free,

THEIR

Paris Novelties

Trimmings,

Colored silk and gold raised work embroideries, studdea with opal jewels, in the new shades and combinations.

Black Silk and fine cut jet Passementerie, in Black Braid Trimmings—being a combination

A large assortment of fine Black cut Jet (18th Street Station Elevated Road.)

MYSTERY OF THE MARSH. FURNITURE

the Murdered Man.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) BALDWINS, L. I., March 11. - The authorities are maxing every effort to unravel the myster; urrounding the death of the unknown man found last Saturday in the awamp near Mill-

At the inquest yesterday Samuel Johnson

Excitement runs hight to-day amon the students at Columbia Law anent the new schedule announced yes terday by President Seth Low. The chedule makes radical changes, the fol lowing among others:

The unit of the course is made three years, instead of adding a third year o the two-year course. Study of public law is permitted as

Study of public law is permitted as part of the degree equipment.
Study and lecture hours are so arranged as to discourage office work in the first and second years, while facilitating it in the third year.
An arrangement of hours is made to throw open to law students many privileges of the university hitherto denied. It also relieves the professors from repeating the same work twice a day. In brief the practice that has ever prevailed under Professor Paright is modelled after that of Harvard University.

FOLITICAL ECHOES.

Ex-Judge Thomas W. Pittman will preside at the ongressman Amos J. Cummings will deliver the M. Francis Blake, Deputy Clerk of the Board of Adermen, is on the permanent hat of Temmany Iall shouters. The capacity of Mr. Biska's lungs and the volume of his rotce peculiarly fit him for out-door oratory.

of Brooklyn, one of Jersey City Heights and anothe The reception to Lieutenant-Governor Jones t ne given by the Steekler Association, Saturday even ing. will be attended by 6, 000 people if the expecta ous of the reception committee are realized.

Spring Importation

Dress and Cloak

Consisting of colored Metal cord Passementeries, with cut beads and jewels, in the newest shades and designs.

of braid and hand crochet, in all widths and de-testified to having found, two months ago, a vest, a pair of gitters and a $1-vill and some small change in the sand close to the swamp where the body was found. Dr. James Butchinson, jr., who saw the body after it was taken from the awamp to store it was taken from the awamp to store s. 104, 106, 108 WEST 14TH ST.

body after it was taken from the swamp to Fearsail's Hotel, said it was impossible to determine the cause of death, owing to the advanced stage of decomposition.

The inquest was adjourned until March 24, and in the mean time efforts will be made to identify the man. It is thought possible he may have been a Swede who disappeared in December, leaving ma trunk with James Jeasen, with whom he boarded.

Jenson, who lives at 83 Metropolitin avenue, Williamsburg, will be called upon to see if he can recognize the dead man's clothing.

Harvard's Plan Adopted by Columbis University Authorities.

versity.

The new members of the faculty are not yet named. President Law announces that the trustees will lose no time in making their selections, after careful inquiry and consideration.

The new schedule goes into off et with the beginning of the results. Burleigh-I tell you it costs a man to dress Tubbs—Yes, dress goods are high, especially on the shonlers.

he beginning of the next school year the first Monday of October.

neeting of the Twe fth District Jefferson Club next laturday night, on the occasion of the presentation of a silver tea service to Excise Communicator Koch.

will open Thursday, March 12th, narrow and wide widths.

Dress and Cloak Garnitures and Medici Collars.

18th Street, 19th Street and Sixth Avenuc.

Possible Clue to the Identity of ittle dat of hair on his underlip. The dat is a Georges sinks to the ground. Then tearing open his coat he brings forth some important papers and hands them placidly to his would-be murderer, "You have belrayed me," he cries. " do not betray your country." In the next act we see Jeanne. She is in naif-mourning for her heart. She has black gloves and a black bat. Jacques appears to known, and on the principle that murder will -especially on the stage. After some pleasing complications, which I decline to explain, because I want you all to go and see them for yourselves (that saves me beautifully), a happy ending is accomplished.

"Love and War" is rull of tritisms. Everybody has lovely, bompastic sentiments to utter. It is "me country" half the time, and "m child" the other balt. The "me country business doesn't go here very well, for it refers to France, while the "me child" utterances would be much better introduced sa specialtie into "A Straight Tip."

The cast was on the whole bad, its redeen ing feature being Mist Amy Rozeile, who as Mme. Bernard, a wholesome mother, was admirable. Her pathos was convincing, and her methods natural and pleasing. Arthur Dacre, as the foolhero, was wooden and about as impressive Col. Gar-I have one thing that will remind as the Indian outside a cigar shop. Eugene me of the war as long as I live.

Judge Law—llow is that? I thought you es-Ormonde seemed to suffer from a hysterical aped without wound or injury.

Col. Gar—I know; but you forget that I have neck, his head moving all the time like that of a canary. He was stilled and jersy. Mrs. Berlan-Gibbs, who was interested in the heart, did not appear to as great advantage as she did, in "The Wife.". She was cold and tame. Mme. de Moissac, played by Katherine Aliya, was very found in her visck and yellow sain, and her Eden Musee attitudes. As for the comedy man, R. N. Hickman, his part was no ghasily lind he could do nothing with it. As a Frenchman his attire was remarkable. "Why not?" asked the editor. "He-knows-me-too-well," gasped the

It suggested the Crystal Palace on a 'arl holl-day rather than the Chateau de Moissac.

his wife well these days.

He Was Correct.

[From Munsey's Weekly.] "There is one thing about that young ro mance writer." "What?"
"She may grow old, but she will never be

Beyond Her Reach.

For Reasons.

[From Munecy's Weekly,]

"Don't let Bronson write my obituary, " sal

He Was Too Particular, [From Puck.] Beggar (to Glaniers, was has given him:

oin)—Nay, mister, this dime's plunged. Glanders (examining it and replacing it in its pocket)—Ah! so it is, etting Him Draw His Own Conclusion. [Fram Harper's Baser.] Humorist—Diri you get my jokes, sir!*

downstates on the ground-floor. Would't Raise the Price.

to self has an encumbtance on it.
Uncle Abe—What dat? Didn't know dat sure, sah. Welh, nebbas-mind, if it's got er gold mine on it, let it go at de price. All Is Miracle, Jeanne de Moissac has a highly original and entertaining heart, and it is quite the most ineresting feature of "Love and War," th remantic drams" in four acts, adapted from Paul Charton's. "Devant L'Ennemi" by C.

Aunt Furby. -Say Silas, how do them there

SEEN ON A LATE TRAIN.

From Munney's Weekly. 1

She-Grorge, just turn that seat in tront

He—It works mighty hard—it must be locked Gentleman Who Had Been Occupying Seat No. by gosb, it ain't locked!

Pure Hudson English,

Haverstraw Brick-Shipper-Are you the con

She Knew That Kind.

Mister Knyack (whispering)-No; I othin' but the commandee.

mander of this barge?

is over, and we'll have more room.

ars go 'long without horses? Uncle Stias. - That stuff what Edison make over in Jersey, makes them go. It's a kind o' lightnin'. Aunt Furby.—Uan't be Jersey lightnin', Silas, or they wouldn't go 'long so steady.

A Purely Business Motive.

he Gotham Quartet are other leatures of the E. J. Henley, Mrs. Carter's leading man, re turns to the city very shortly, and as soon a hals here Col. Alfrend's play, "The Louis anian," that is to be produced next month at matines at the Madison Square Theatre, will be rehearsed. The piece will call for som elaborate staging, as it is a "costume play." Manager Hammerstein is an Ibsen enthe saat. He says that the part of Consul Bernici in "The Pitture of Society" calls for a Possar or an Irving. The farce-comedy, "O'Dowd's Neighbors, the farce-comedy. "Dowd's Neigabors, is very nearly ready for presentation. A great deal of well-directed energy has been expended upon it by Jack Levy. It will first be seen in a quiet little New Jersey town, and then it will be launched more emphatically.

"Jadah" has been played in South Africa by A. R. Thome's Australian Company. When it was performed in Pretoria there was a great controversy about the line "fasting weakens the body, but gives beauty and strength to the soul." The South Africans thought that the soul could not be affected by phrancal weakness. A compromise was made, and thenry Arthur Jones was excussed on the ground that in asyling "soul" he meant "mind." Then somebody else declared that the church had always looked upon fasting as a sprintal purification, and that Mr. Jones was consequently correct. "Judah" Jones was consequently correct. "Judab

VACRANT VERSES

Back from Town. Old frands allus is the best, Halest-like and heartlest; Knowed ne first, and don't allow We're so blamed much better now! They was standin's at the bars When we grabbed "the knywered kyars" And ill out fer town, to make Money—and that old mistake!

We thought then the world we went into beat "The Settlement," And the friends 'at we'd make there Would beat any anywhere! And they do—fer that's their bis; They beat all the friends they is— 'Cept the real old friends ike you 'At stayed home, like I'd ors to!

W'r, of all the good things yet I am't shet of, is to quit Business, and git back to sheer i hese old comforts waitin' here—Thee eid friends; and these old hands 'At a feller understands; These old winter nights, and old Young tolks chased in out the cold!

Form "Hard Times'll come ag'in No More!" and neighbors all jime in!
Here's a relier come from town Wants that sir old fiddle down From the chimbly! Oit the floor Cleared for one convilition more!
It's pute the kitchen fire, says he,
And shake a friendly sig with me!

—James Whitmenh Riley, in Centu

The Long Ago. Rometimes life's shadows seem very long.
And khan I wonder if it is very wrong.
To wish the sun would shine?
The birds would sing.
And the breake blow.
As they used to, you know,
in the long ago.

Rank Rebellion. The darling little baby boy presented me of late, I love with all a father's fond delight; And yet the little rebel, quite unastural to state, is up in arms against me every night.

not only of fresh Spring green, but takes or

Are the months in which to purify your blood. During the winter the blood becomes thin and impure, so that in the spring the body loses its energy, the appetite goes, and the system craves the aid of a reliable medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiarly adapted to purify and enrich the blood, to create a good appetite and to overcome that tired feeling. Therefore, take many of the glowing hues of Autumn woods, March May April heart-is a very stagey affair. It is supposed villain, and Georges, the fool, for Jeanne' funny little heart. Their conduct in the wa is to decide the case. The braver is to get the heart. Jacques, however, is a wretch. knew that, the instant ne appeared, by the our father, Miss Cole? Miss Vera Cole—It is useless, Mr. Hope—I can never be rour wife.

Jan gine

Mr. Lozier Hope—Excuse me, I wished to peak to him about that $45 he borrowed of me week before last. I'm getting a little nervous

My wife doesn'

Cause and Effect. [From Munsey's Weekly,] Figgs-How did you get so bald-too muc rain fag ? Diggs-No-hair restorer.

[From Munecy's Weekly.]
Petie-De blokie punched me on de jaw. Sunday-school Teacher-I nope you keaped coals of fire on his head.
Feite—Naw, I didn't. Didn't have no coals.
I banged him on de snoot wid a snowball. A Reminder.

he dying man.

Editor-Yes, sir. And I want to say to you hat hereafter you would better leave them Humorist—Why so, sir? Editor—Because tals floor will only sustain three hundred pounds to the square foot.

A bevy of 'teautiful belles-

So an item of history tells-Have agreed, after test, That H-O is the best, And its praises each one of them swells, good Georges and finally stabs him. The good

LAW SCHOOL'S NEW SCHEDULE

Soven well-paid attaches of the Finance Depart ment retide out of town. Five of them are resident

The County Democracy is involved in an interni-one was which may disrupt it. The younger cis-ment is highing against the countrol of the organiza-tion by the old Bourbons, and it has succeeded in preventing an organization of the County Commitnual exhibit of the finest and most benutiful stock of goods that we have ever had the oppos-tunity of offering for their inspection. These goods te made from our apecial designs, and came seen or obtained at any other establi

NOTE THIS.

WE MOST EARNESTLY REQUEST AT INVESTIGATION BY PURCHASERS BEFORE BUYING.
ALL OUR NEW PATTERNS AT FIRST COST OF PRODUCTION.

Bay of the Maker." GEO. C. FLINT CO.,

> Between 6th and 7th Aves At our factory, Nos. 154 and 158 West 19th st. -e execute every description of orders for interior secration and cabinet work.

L.ADIES-I se'l furniturs without requiring deposits own; give longest credit, Manf. Agt., 100 W. 20th. POLITICS GOT INTO THE CLUB.

A Lively Fight On for the Control of the Manhattan. Politics is said to be creeping into the canvass of candidates for position on the Board of Managers of the Mannattan Club. The fight-and it is said to be a lively one-is between the adherents of Tammany Hall and the representatives of factions opposed to the Wigwam. The election of managers occurs to-morrow night a week and there are four tickets in the field, but the contest is between practically two of them.

Seven managers are to be elected. Eve for three years, one for two years and one for one C. C. Baldwie, Chalman of the County Democracy County Committee, "x-Park Com-missioner J. Hampden Robb, ex-Sheriff James O'Brien, ex-Spiect Cle-ning Commissioner Coleman and other anti-Trumman tes are coleman and other antis Temmany tes are shonsors for a tieset maning Jonn Howe, Ir. William C. Whitney, Weller Stanton, David B. Gilbert and George Griswold Haven for three year terms, Thomas Newbold for two years and Spiveater J. O'sellivan for one year. The Tam many ticket followed this in the field and squasilinted Ferry Belment and R. Duncan Harris for John Hare, jr. and David B. Gilbert, and J. Coleman Drayion for Thomas Newbold, and Charies B. Peet for Svivester J. O'Sellivan.

Prominent members of Tammany Hall who are also members of the Clue, repudiate the idea that the wigwam is interested in the tist.

i office Commissioner James J. Murin is one of these, and he declares that Tammaay Hallsheatquarters is in Fourteenth street, and B. does not desire to locate in Fifth avenue.

IS IT A JONES BOOM?

Steckler Association's Reception to the Lieutenant-Governor. The reception to be given to Littlemants-Governor Edward F. Jones next Saturday night by the Steckler Association, which best night by the Steckler Association, which has been characterized as a Taumany Hall boom for the Lieutenant-Governor in his casewase for the Gubernatorial numination, may present a greater significance, it is said.

Not only is the stront Tammany Hall Society of the Tenth District int-ressed in the affair, but the Democracy of Westchester County is also involved.

The Tammany Association of Wittiamswridge headed by President Duncan, of that village, has accepted an iuvitation to be present, and will assist in the reception to Mr. Jones.

THE sprams so common during teathing are presented by MORELL'S TRETHING CORDIAL. 20c. 10

Rest Estate Agent-Look here, Uncle Abe, find that bouse and lot you out in my hands Bingo-I must go home. My with want me to stay out after 9 o'clock. Kingley-I thought she let you stay out un-Bingo-She did. But that was before I was married. Overheard.

Long ago need not mean years:
Time is measured by heart throbe and tears By deeds of kindness done for his sake We ho loves to as well, Some day he will tell
All we could not know
In the long ago,
—Anais Lautes Peu -Annie Lauise Powell.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

bair, the only trimming a wreath of Parma violets. Toques of most alender shap and round English turbans are largely imported. The closej small hats for early Spring and for wearing with tailor gowns are modified English walking hats, with the brim rolled closely at the back. Nearly all garniture is